About the Production!

This new show brings to light internet safety in a fun, yet serious way! We are in the golden age of technology, and we have global information at our fingertips! However, sometimes that knowledge can get in the hands of the wrong people. Help your students understand the importance of internet safety in ways of passwords, fake profiles, and how to handle those random "Friend Requests." Our actors will help show your students tips and tools in how to keep safe online!

Martin Cooper

Can you imagine what our lives would be like without cell phones? Now a days, the average age for getting a first cell phone is just 10 years old! When Martin Cooper invented the first cell phone back in 1973, he had no idea what a phenomenon he had created! The first cell phone rolled out in 1983 and with that, he is considered the "Father of the (handheld) cell phone." As of 2015, 92% of American adults had a cell phone, and that number has continued to grow since then! Imagine what your life would be like if you couldn't use your cell phone for a day; a week; a year; forever!

If you own a cell phone, or tablet, chances are you have downloaded at least one app, or application! Currently Android users have access to the most available apps with over 3.8 million available for download! Those with Apple phones only have access to 2 million!

Fun facts about cell phones!

Our cell phones have gone through some major changes in the past 35 years! The first cell phone measured 11 inches tall and weighed 2.5 pounds! It cost $3,995 which would be over $10,000 today!

In Japan, 90% of cell phones are waterproof! This is because most children and teenagers take their phones into the shower with them! Did you also know that your phone carries 18 times more bacteria than a toilet handle? Make sure to sanitize it regularly!

Classroom Discussions!

1. Break up into groups and discuss what the best things about the internet, cell phones, and social media are! Have each student discuss what makes our social technology so useful!
2. In the same groups, go around and talk about how the internet, cell phones, and social media can be dangerous. Talk about what happens when you spend too much time on these devices, and what the best ways to stay safe online are!
3. Have a group discussion! Do your students have a cell phone? If so - discuss why it is important in their life. What about that portable technology has helped their lives!

HISTORICAL TWITTER!

Ask your students how many of them have a Twitter. For the students who don't have one, or don't know what it is - explain to them that Twitter is a social media platform where people can send their thoughts through "Tweets" that have to be 280 characters or less! Pick a topic you are currently learning about and have them role play as the characters! Then have them go back and forth comparing historical events into a short, 280 character or less, Tweet!

@THE_George_Washington_CARVER

"GUYS! So I've been playing around with peanuts I found and I think these are WAY cooler than people are giving them credit for. I've found, like... over 300 uses for them.

SERIOUSLY. Um, I guess... just buy my book?

Be the Next Famous Inventor!

Every single piece of technology we use today came from one small idea!

What ideas do you have? Use the space below to brainstorm what inventions you could make that would change the world! What would you need to do to ensure that your inventions were safe for all people?

YOU CAN DO THIS TOO!

Where to start: All of our actors started out playing and telling stories when they were young -then they decided to study acting in school. Now they are pros! Here are some ways you can start doing theatre right away!

In School! Does your school have plays or musical performances? This is a great place to start.

In Your Community! Many towns have community theaters or local acting groups. See if you can try out!

Start Something! If your school doesn't have a drama club or a theatre club, talk to your favorite teacher about how you might be able to start one.

At Home! Get together with friends, cousins, brothers and sisters and make your own play. You can make up plays based on your favorite books and stories. Invite family and friends to see your performance.

Try new things and do your best at them! There are lots of jobs in the theatre besides acting. There are people who paint the sets, make costumes, write plays and more. Get the most out of your art, music and English classes. You can use all of these things to be a live theatre pro!

Before, During and After the Play...

BEFORE YOU SEE THE PLAY...

Attending the theatre is very different from watching TV or going to the movies. For one thing, the actors are real people who are performing right then and there. They can see and hear everything that happens in the audience. Because of this, YOU are an important part of the play and its important to do your job as an audience member well. Here are some tips before you see the play.

1. Please be quiet and respectful so everyone else around you can hear what's happening and so the actors can do their job.
2. If something is funny, it is okay to laugh!
3. The actors may ask you to participate. Don't be afraid to respond, ask a question or volunteer!
4. Keep your hands to yourself and your eyes up front.
5. If you like the play, be sure to clap at the end.
6. Have fun! Enjoy yourself!

FUN FACTS ABOUT THEATRE!

After a play is over and everyone goes home, there is always a light left on backstage. It's called a ghost light!

The oldest play that is still around was written by an Ancient Greek named Aeschylus. It's almost 2500 years old!

The longest performance on stage ever was over 23 hours long! It happened in New Jersey in 2010.

William Shakespeare is a famous play writer. He wrote 37 plays and is still quoted by many people. There are 157 million google pages that mention him--the most of any famous person ever!

In theatre, it's considered bad luck to tell an actor, "Good luck" before a performance. Instead, you're supposed to say, "Break a leg!"

After seeing the Play...

Write your own review of the play! A review is a way of telling your thoughts about a play, movie or book. Consider the following when you are writing your review.

What was your favorite part? Who was your favorite character? Can you summarize

ABOUT US!

Founded in 2003, Bright Star Theatre tours the nation offering high quality, affordable programs to every imaginable venue. We've had countless engagements at the National Theatre, toured to Moscow and are so grateful to be in your very school today!

Costumes: The wigs, clothing and glasses that the actors wore to help flush out their characters .

Auditions: How an actor gets a role is by auditioning. They may have to interview, pretend to be a character from the play or read something from it.

Set Designer: The person who decided what should be on the background and who painted or created it.

The Process of a Play:

1. Actors audition
2. Directors cast the show (that means they choose actors)
3. The directors and actors rehearse the play (that means they practice it).
4. A team of people works on building the set, costumes and props.
5. The play opens (that means it is performed for the first time)!
